From the Amsterdam Courants.

Vienna, July 10.

THE 7th Instant the great Tournament or Caroufel, (for which we said in our former extraordinary Preparations were made,) was open'd at the Emperor's Palace of Schonbrun. The fights were divided into two Troops, one cloth'd in Red, the other in Blue: The first was led by the Emperor, and was compos'd of Count Maximilian Martinitz, Count Leopold Lamberg, Count Dietrichstein, Count Sereni, Count Colorado, Count Kinski, Count Althan, Count Hazfeld, Count Staremburg, Count Sternberg, and Count Guido Staremburg as Marshal of the Field. The other was led by Prince Maximilian of Hanover, and was compos'd of the Count of Salm, Count Dietrichstein Knight of Malta, Count Herberstein, Count Zierolin, Count Trautmansdorf, Count Wal, Count Colalto, Count Paar, Count Lengheim, Count Rosenburg, and Count Herbeville as Marshal of the Field. The Judges of the Caroufel were the Ambassador of Venice, the Prince of Salm Great Master of the Emperor's Household, Count Trautson Great Chamberlain, and Count Waldstein great Marshal of the Court. Each Troop was preceded by a certain Number of Trumpets and Kettledrums, the Field Marshals were preceded by led Horses richly caparison'd, the Emperor by his Pages, and each Knight by his Gentlemen carrying Lances and Javelins gilt, as also by their Footmen in Liveries. After they had made some Turns about the Lists, the Troops took their appointed Stations; the Emperor and the Prince of Hanover began the Course, and after them the Knights ran two at a Time; but the third Course was hardly begun, when the Wind grew so boisterous, that the rest was put off to the next Day. The Emperor won the Prize of the Pistol, and of running at the Heads; the Count of Zierolin that of the Lance, the Count of Colalto that of the Javelin or Dart, and the Count of Paar that of the Sword. The 7th Mr. Stepney and Monsieur Bruininx return'd hither from Tirnau. The 11th a Conference was held at the Favorite, in the Emperor's Presence, upon the Affairs of Hungary, where all Letters and Papers lately deliver'd on both sides, were examin'd; and the next Day the Bishop of Osnabrug and Count Wratislaw acquainted Mr. Stepney and Monsieur Bruininx with the Resolutions of this Court, and desir'd them in the Emperor's Name to undertake another Journey to Tirnau, which they began the same Day at 4 in the Afternoon. The XXIII Articles of Peace propos'd by the Malecontents, with the Emperor's Answer to them, are printed here. In Case the Remonstrances the foresaid Ministers Mediators of England and Holland are now to make for the last Time to the Malecontents, have no Effect upon them, the War will be renew'd against them with the utmost Vigour, as soon as the Cessation of Arms which reaches to the 25th of this Month, is expir'd. The Emperor having made Count Herbeville Field Marshal, of his Forces in Bavaria, he will be going thither in a few Days. The Count of Harrach, Bishop of Vienna, and Coadjutor of Salzburg, having resign'd that Bishoprick the 11th Instant, his Imperial Majesty has nominated to that Dignity Baron Rummel Bishop of Tinnra, formerly his Preceptor. They begin to talk afresh at Court, of a Marriage between King Charles III and the Princess Elizabeth of Wolfembuttel.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated July 27.

Nuremberg, July 20. Letters from Baden in Switzerland, say there was so great Variance between the Roman Catholick and Protestant Cantons about divers Affairs, that 'twas apprehended it would break out into Hostilities. The 15th of last Month the Marquis de Beretti Landi receiv'd 130000 Crowns of the Marquis de Puiseux, to distribute among the Roman Catholick Cantons that have renew'd their Alliance with the State of Milan, to induce them to ratify that new Alliance. M. Baltasar, Bailiff of Lucerne, has been from Canton to Canton, to get that Treaty sign'd in order to its being ratified; Lucern, Ury, and Underwalden, have already sign'd it, but the rest excuse themselves, to the great Mortification of the said Spanish and French Ministers.

Hague, July 30. 'Tis said the King of Prussia has made some Offers to the Prince of Nassau Siegen to prevail with him to make over to him his Pretensions or Rights to the Succession of Orange; But that that Prince has refus'd them, resolving not to quit the Title of Prince of Orange which he took upon him presently after the Death of the late King William. Prince Lewis of Baden having form'd some Design against the Enemy, has sent Count Schlick to Coblenz, to desire the Elector of Trier to furnish him with Cannon and Powder necessary for executing of it. Their High Mightinesses being inform'd, that some Persons as well in Holland as in the Spanish Netherlands, give out that this State intends to appropriate several Towns of the said Netherlands to themselves, have resolv'd to undeceive the People; and to that End have order'd a Declaration or sort of Manifesto to be drawn up, in which they declare they Pretend to nothing in the Spanish Netherlands, looking upon the whole as belonging to King Charles III. and the Spanish Monarchy; and the same will be speedily publish'd.
